A New England Marriage.

In old New England long ago,

Those two young folks of wit and joy

Before the early settlers way,

A youth and damsel bold and fair,

Had cause to take a journey where

Through night and day and day and night,

No house would greet their weary sight.

And stinging hymeneal about

Preceded their journey thro' the wood.

They straightway to a justice went

By love and circumstance sent!

The Justice, good, old honest pate

Said it was quite unfortunate,

But at that time he could not bind,

Those two young folks of wit and mind,

For his commission, and to say,

Well just expired but yesterday!

Yet, after all, he would not say

That single they should go away;

And so he bade them join their hands,

In holy wedlock happy bands.

And "just a little" he would say

Enough perhaps to satisfy carry,

As they were in consubstantial mood.

"Enough to do them through the wood."

Frightful Railroad Accident—

Collision between Two Trains

on the Grand Trunk Road.

DREADFUL LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY—

THE CAR ON FIRE—SEVERAL PERSONS

ROASTED ALIVE.

From the Detroit Free Press, Dec. 16.

A most dreadful accident, attended with loss of life occurred last night,

shortly before 8 o'clock, on the Grand Trunk Railroad, about a mile and a half

west of the Detroit and Milwaukee junction through a collision between the passenger express west and a freight train going east. The particulars which have been gathered thus far are nearly

as follows:

The passenger train was behind time,

and had made all the necessary pauses,

according to the telegraphic instructions,

until it had passed New Baltimore station, where it is said it had orders to pass the freight train going east at the Detroit and Milwaukee junction. When it arrived there, according to the story of the operator at the Grand Trunk junction, it had orders to proceed all right. Under these instructions it passed the junction, when shortly afterwards

the engineer thought he discovered an engine ahead. The next moment he heard the whistle to draw brakes, when he immediately gave a similar order, and reversed his engine. There were with him in the cab at the time, two other persons, besides the fireman. Before they could jump, the two engines came crashing together, in frightful contact,

literally making chaos of everything connected with both. The engines were crowded with passengers. There were filled to the utmost, so much so that scarce even standing room could be obtained. After the accident, those

Local and Miscellaneous News.

The winter term of the public schools of Stillwater commences to-day.

Wood.—Wood is coming in from the country pretty freely, every day, and sells at from $5.50 to $6.50 per cord, according to quality.

The County Commissioners are in session at the Auditor's office.

Assemblies.—The first of a series of assemblies comes off on Thursday evening of this week at the Sawyer House Hall.

St. Croix & Miss. Steamboat Co. Meeting.—All who are interested in this important movement are earnestly requested to attend an adjourned meeting of this company which is held to-morrow evening at the Council Rooms.

The Skating Park.—Preparations are now in progress for flooding a portion of the ice on the lake, near CARL's warehouse. A sufficient amount has been subscribed, through the efforts of our energetic friend, Mr. JAMES WHEELER, to place the park in proper condition, and keep it clear from snow.

Honorable Affairs.—A woman in St. Paul, named STELZER, while in a fit of aberration, on the 22nd of last month, killed her three children, by beating out their brains with a hatchet, and then committed the horrible tragedy by cutting her own throat with a butcher knife.

American Agriculturist.—The January number of this invaluable paper is at hand. The Agriculturist is a journal which no well-regulated family should be without. It is not only almost absolutely indispensable to the farmer, but every man who cultivates a seven-by-nine garden, or owns a swarm of bees, or even expects to, will save money by investing the sum of $1.50 in one year's subscription to this valuable family paper.

A Moral Town.—In the Daily Press of Dec. 31, we find a modest article, covering only about one solid page, setting forth, in glorious colors the present and future prospects of St. Paul. In the recapitulation of the business of that city we find three items which happen to appear together, which struck us as an indication of the "Moral and elevated nature" of the people:

The Christmas Ball.—Very few more select or pleasant gatherings were ever witnessed in this place than that which assembled at the Sawyer House on Monday evening, Dec. 26. About seventy-five couples were present—St. Paul, Hudson, Marine and Taylor Falls being well represented. The music, by SEIBERT'S band, was, as usual, of the very best; while the supper, under the supervision of Mr. CURTIS, was gotten up in superior style, and the arrangement of the tables in most exquisite taste.

The Call for 300,000 More.—SHALL WE LET THE DRAFT "DROP" or US?—The universal opinion is, as far as we have ascertained, that we shall. In the opinion of the few people left in our city who are liable to a draft, this thing resolves itself into a matter of dollars and cents. Under the previous calls, we filled our quota by paying large bounties, the fund for that purpose being raised by voluntary subscription, and by the issuance of city bonds. There are, in every community a certain number who will stand aloof and look most intensely in the opposite direction when the hat goes round; and that certain number avoided the last draft in exactly that way; that is, by not paying a cent, or making the least effort in that direction. For that reason, it is proposed to let the bolt strike, and the man that is hit, let him go down—to Dixie.

CHRISTMAS.—This day occurring on Sunday, the usual festivities of the day were dispersed along through several of the days preceding and of those following.

The most important and pleasing feature attending the recurrence of this day is the unfailing "Christmas Tree." These were held at the various Churches, besides an endless number which were gotten up at private houses, for the home circle, with a few invited neighbors and friends. We expected to have received, for publication, a full account of the proceedings of the Christmas Trees at the various Churches, but have only received the following account of the EPISCOPAL Church.

The Christmas Tree Festival of Ascension Church, at the Sawyer House, on Wednesday evening, passed off delightfully to all concerned. The Tree was profusely decorated. The ladies manifested their excellent taste in the selection and arrangement of the gifts. The gentlemen deserve a word of commendation for their special interest in this agreeable entertainment.

The child and, others, were bountifully supplied with a variety of good things.

Mrs. HILLS received a present of "greenbacks"—very acceptable, no doubt, in these times.

ISAAC STRAUSS, Esq., the popular proprietor of the Sawyer House, very generously passed over the proceeds of the Hall rent to the Rev. Mr. HILLS.

Every one hopes that Christmas will come again next year.

At the Myrtle street Church, the Tree was held on Friday evening, and on Saturday evening at the Second Presbyterian Church.

"THE MOST LAUGHABLE THING ON EARTH."—Look at the advertisement, in another column, with the above title. It is no humbug. We have had many a hearty laugh with it. Send 25 cents to AMSTER & CO., Box 456, Boston, Mass., and get copy by return mail, post paid.

The Star Family Paper.—We print elsewhere the New York Mace's novel and selling prospectus for 1893, which gives a fair idea of the test and enterprise of the oldest, ablest, and most reliable literary weekly in America.

Its attractions for the coming year are unusually clever and numerous, and its social stories are fresh, racy, and exciting. The miscellaneous features announced seem to us, who speak of the paper from long personal acquaintance with it, to constitute of themselves splendid inducements to subscribers. Its unrivalled circulation makes the publishers to supply it at lower rates, than any of its less pleasing and successful competitors.

Carrier's Annual Address

To the Patrons and Friends of the Stillwater Messenger.

JANUARY 1, 1893.

Twelve months ago we left our starry flag Where all the world its sacred folds might scan Again we snatch it from the mountain crag, And bear it onward in the battle's van. The soldier slings his knapsack on his back, His cartridge box is belted on his side; The filing columns take the Southwest track, To hunt the foe that Freedom's God defied. Far to the rear the rugged cloud-capt crest Of Lookout Mountain fades upon the sight; The level of country warms each patriot breast With burning ardor for the coming fight. Resaca, Allatoona, Rocky face, And Buzzard's Roost, though uncouth names, may grace

The desolates records of the gallant band Who strove for Freedom and their Fatherland. In vain the waves of Chattahoochee roll Between our heroes and their destined goal; In vain Atlanta's walls with cannon frown; They raise their banner o'er the rebel town. And still a hundred leagues the Union band Advance their banner o'er the rebel land, And plant it on the seaboard Georgian shore, Where battle's thunder drowns Atlantic's roar.

Now turn we to another field, Where other heroes face the foe; Heroes who falter not, nor yield, Till with the honored dead laid low. Across the roaring Rapid, See them advancing hero and man; On through the wilderness they go, That dark, dread wilderness of woe. From rifle pit and strong redoubt, The rebels send defiant shout; Our gallant boys, who know no fear, Charge on their works with answering cheer. Now in the conflict see them close; O'er many a mile they press their foes, Where human blood in rivers flows. What awful carnage meets the sight, Where twice a hundred thousand men, In woody thickets, vale and glen, Meet hand to hand in deadliest fight. O God, how long shall these things be? Till traitors yield, and man is free. Still shall the thundering cannon roar Along Virginia's blighted shore, Till slaves and traitors are no more. All honor to the fallen brave, Who slumber from Potomac's wave Down to the Appomattox shore; The battle's shock and shout, no more Disturbs the calm and peaceful rest, With which the Nation's dead are blest.

Now let us make the welkin ring For battles won on land and sea; Let all the Nation shout in gladdest fight. O God, how long shall these things be? Till traitors yield, and man is free. Still shall the thundering cannon roar Along Virginia's blighted shore, Till slaves and traitors are no more. # STILLWATER MESSENGER

A. B. EASTON, Editor.

STILLWATER,

Tuesday, - - January 17, 1865.

Free Missouri.

The following brief but eloquent correspondence passed between the Governor of Missouri and the Governor of our own State:

JERVISON CITY, Mo., Jan. 12. Gov. Minnesota, St. Paul, Minn.: J. C. FLETCHER, Governor Missouri. To which Gov. Miller responded: St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 12, 1865. Gov. J. C. Fletcher, Jefferson City, Mo. The Executive of the North Star State responds: All hail, Free Missouri! Freedom and Slavery, united in their lives, in their death can not be separated.

STEVENS MILLER, Gov. Minnesota.

Proceedings of the County Commissioners.

We give an abstract of the doings of the Board of Commissioners at their last session a few weeks ago.

Selected the Grand and Petit Jurors for the ensuing year.

Re-appointed Dr. J. K. Reiner County Physician at a salary of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum.

Made a reduction in the salary of the County Attorney of one hundred dollars. His salary is now four hundred dollars.

Authorized the opening of a road, commencing near the western shore of Lake St. Croix, on the line between the towns of Denmark and Afton, running in a south-westerly direction through Cottage Grove and Newport, to the Mississippi river. Considerable opposition was made to the opening of the road by persons living along the route, a number claiming damages for injury to their property by the proposed road.

After a hearing, and much deliberation, the Board was of the opinion that as much benefit as injury would accrue to the complainants, and authorized the opening of the road.

We find in the St. Paul papers a table showing the age, nativity, occupation, &c., of the members of the present Legislature. We compile the following:—In the Senate there are eight farmers, six lawyers, three merchants, one mechanic, one lumberman, one physician, one tanner, one miller, one clerk, one railroad president, one railroad agent, one clergyman, one very civil engineer, and in the whole Senate, only one gentleman.

In the House of Representatives there are eighteen farmers, twelve lawyers, six merchants, two clergymen, one laborer, one real estate agent, one grain dealer, one banker, one insurance agent, one manufacturer, one register of deeds, one book-keeper, one soldier, two millers.

It will be seen that there is a greater number of farmers in either House than of any other occupation, and no fears need be felt that the agricultural interest will suffer by unfriendly legislation during the present session.

The New Board.

The Board of County Commissioners now constituted consists of the following gentlemen: H. A. Jackson and Orange Walker holding over; in the 5th District, Beckman Winant, elected for three years; William Willis, elected for two years; to fill vacancy; Arthur Stephens appointed to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Hantmon.

We saw this afternoon one of the victims of Andersonville atrocity—Mr. Origen Lay of St. Charles, who was exchanged as Charleston, and arrived here to-day on his way home. He belonged to the 6th Minnesota regiment, and was captured last July in the unfortunate Gen. Sturgis' affair. He is the shadow of his former self, but hopes to recover health and strength in the bracing atmosphere of Minnesota. He corroborates to the fullest extent all statements we have received of the barbarities practiced upon Union prisoners in the den at Andersonville.—Winona Republican.

An army correspondent of the Hartford Courant, thinks it may interest deserters to know that those who are convicted of this offense are hung in the Army of the Potomac, and shot in the Army of the James, as it gives them an opportunity of selecting their mode of exit.

The annual meeting of pews in Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, took place last week. Four hundred dollars was paid for the first choice, and the prices for the first choice ranged from $10 to $100. Beecher's popularity is evidently not on the wane.

To MILITARY OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS.—From Col. E. F. Jones, Mass. 26th. "With me, the use of the 'Bronchial Specimen' is an absolute necessity; and I cannot understand how any officer who is called upon, by his position, to use his voice in command, can succeed without them."

From the First Battalion Minnesota Infantry.

One 1st Bn Minn. Inf. (New York, N. Y.) New York, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1865.

Editor Messenger: Within the last two weeks I have received several letters from information in regard to Jacob Fisher of your city, and a member of the 2nd Minn. Sharpshooters, and will, with your permission, answer them all through your columns. Mr. Fisher was captured on the 28th of August last, at Ream's Station, Va., together with quite a number of his Company. One of them, Mr. Hugh Curry, has since been paroled. I saw him a day or two since, and made inquiries in reference to Fisher, and he informed me that he was still in captivity. I will give you his story:

From Ream's Station they were taken, by way of Petersburg, to Richmond, and consigned to the tender mercies of the keeper of Libby Prison, who examined them, taking everything but one shirt, one pair socks, one pair trousers and a few little articles. Fisher, however, succeeded in keeping his watch. From Libby they were transferred to Belle Isle, where they were kept for several weeks. Sometime in September the rebel authorities conceived the idea of removing the prisoners to some place farther South. Accordingly on the 1st of October they were ordered to prepare for their journey. Mr. Curry was taken suddenly ill, and when the other boys were sent South, he was taken to a hospital in Richmond. Some days after he was informed by a rebel soldier that the prisoners were sent to Salisbury, North Carolina, where a stockade had been built on purpose for them.

Mr. Curry says that Fisher had been sick, but was getting stronger when he last saw him.

Since I saw Mr. Curry, I have been informed that a member of our Battalion who was captured at the same time Fisher was, had been exchanged, and was now at Annapolis, Md. If such is the case, Fisher is probably there also. This I regard as doubtful, as there has been no exchange at Richmond lately, and I understand the rebels have ceased operations at Savannah, Ga.

Yours, &c.

T. H. PRESSNELL.

—At the Farago reception in the Brooklyn Academy of Music, the other night, a lady asked the old Viking if it was true that he was fished to the sea at Mobile? "Well," said the Admiral—who is as artless as a child—"I'll tell you all about it. You know, in a fight the smoke of the guns lies on the water, and, naturally, I would want to see over it, to know what was going on. Well, I would jump upon a box—so high (indicating with his hand) that I would get up a little higher; and bye and bye I got up to where they say I was. I suppose I was two hours getting as high as that. I had a little rope that I had lashed around me, just to keep me from falling, in case I should get hurt. Every one, you know, is liable to get hurt in a fight."

THE HOME JOURNAL.—This long established weekly, so well adapted in its character and taste to the enjoyment of the family circle, will enter its nineteenth year on the first of January. Since the death of General Morris, Mr. Willis has been its chief editor, and under his efficient management, we may safely presume that it will still retain the place it has so long held in first class literary and social circles. Although Mr. Willis has been compelled, by ill health, to leave the city, where for two years past he has chiefly resided, he still furnishes his full proportion of editorial matter for the paper. Mr. Morris Phillips, his partner, has charge of the foreign gossip, art, dramatic and book criticism, and attends to the business department of the paper. He has been many years connected with the Home Journal, and ably manages those parts of it which are under his supervision. The number of contributors to the Home Journal is quite large, and many of them are among our best known and most popular writers.—Evening Post, Dec. 27.

—A Mummy was unrolled on Thursday evening, in the presence of a large meeting of the New York Historical Society and their friends. Prof. Henry J. Anderson, LL.D. first delivered a lecture and another gentleman gave an account of the supposed history of the mummy. The tomb from which it was taken was supposed to have been constructed about the year 1,400 before Christ. The inscription on the mummy case and coffin had, he said, been partially deciphered by Dr. Syfar, who thought they denoted that the coffin contained the remains of a youth known as "Kastes the Just," and that the body had been deposited there about the year 1,406 B. C. The mummy turned out to be in a good state of preservation, but a physician present pronounced the bones to be those of a very old woman.

THE SORREHEADS.—There is a class of chronic sorreheads in this country—the sediment of the late Democratic party—who seem to have no mission except to find fault, denounce, disparage and oppose everything that the Administration does or attempts to do. These shallowpates think they always must resist and fight the Republicans, because they always have, and find a fit representative in the verdant but pugnacious Irishman who, landing in New York harbor, was met and welcomed by a countryman who had longer been here. "Welcome Pat," said the latter, "I'm glad to see you; you've come just in time, for to-morrow's election day." Pat and his friend took some refreshments together, and presently the newly arrived began to make some inquiries about voting. "You can vote for who you please," said the friend, "sure it's a free country." "Well then, begorra," rejoined Pat, "I'll again the Government—that's what I always did at home."—Rockester Democrat.

A ROCKY MOUNTAIN ZEPHYRUS.—The Virginia City (Nevada) Union of the 27th ult. says: "About 10 o'clock night before last, while yepzephyr was raiding through town, tearing down awnings, twisting off window shutters, signs and all that sort of things, it came across one of the big wagons of the Reese River East Freight Line standing on South C street, and just took it up bodily, and carried it over house tops and everything else, and landed it about half a mile away over in Cedar Ravine, smashing it pretty essentially. This wagon weighed about 2,300 pounds. If they've got any gentle zephyrs anywhere that can match ours, when they get a going just fetch 'em along."

—Col. Ewing, bearer of dispatches from Gen. Sherman, authorizes the contradiction of the report in the Richmond papers that Gen. Sherman had recently given assurance that he will not change the status of the slaves, and that he will not allow interference on the part of the army in the relations between master and slave. He would gladly inform rate 50,000 negroes into his army, and has already taken measures to organize all able-bodied slaves who came into Savannah with him.

—Thomas Sim, the fugitive slave about whom there was such a row now in Boston, ten years ago, is now negotiating agent for colored troops in Nashville. Three makes all things even.

HOOB'S PROMISE.—A lot of "gray-back" prisoners were marching through one of the streets in Louisville, the other day, on their way North. A citizen asked one:

"What do you think of Hood now?"

"Why holly for Hood! He said that we should winter in the North, and we expect to do so," said the grayback in reply.

—A coal oil millionaire has named his little daughter Petrolia Ann.

We suppose the next little beauty will be named Carrie Sene.—New Bedford Mercury.

—"Rap! rap! rap! 'Come in,' said the country woman. A rather rough looking man appeared and crossed the threshold. "Is Mr. Smith at home?" said he. "No, sir, he'll be home in a short time. 'Tis a chair," said Mrs. Smith. He selected the best chair in the house, shouldered it, and went off at a rapid rate.

—The Rev. Mark Trafton, of New Bedford, advertises: "If the person who stole my overcoat from my hall on Sabbath evening, will read the Methodist Discipline, which was in one of the pockets, he will learn something to his advantage."

Affairs at Savannah.

New York, Jan. 13.—We have the following items of news from Savannah: Gen. Geary had ordered all unemployed negroes to report themselves for the purpose of obtaining work for the city. The Savannah Republican says: Several Northern capitalists are in the city, to establish the First National Bank of Savannah. Branches of the first class commercial houses in New York, Boston and Philadelphia are to be established as soon as the port is opened.

The prices of productions have been established by the Provost Marshal. Potatoes $0 per barrel, butter 75 cts. per pound; apples $12 per barrel. The Argo brought a heavy mail from Savannah.

A letter was received from Lieut. Thomas Pressnell, of the First Minnesota Regimental Battalion, a day or two since, accompanied by the regimental colors captured at the engagement of Hatcher's Run, October 27. His letter and colors were brought out by James H. Carney, who was wounded in the same engagement, and furloughed.

Lieut. Pressnell has recovered from his wound, and has been mustered in as Second Lieutenant. He is remembered affectionately by his brother printers in St. Paul, as they threw a number of votes for him at the late sword contest.—Pioneer, 15th.

Fessenden Elected U. S. Senator.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 11. Hon. William Pitt Fessenden was elected U. S. Senator to-day, for 6 years, from the 4th of March next. In the Senate Mr. Fessenden received 27 votes, and in the House, 116 to 23 for Hon. Wm. P. Harris, Democrat.

Nathan L. Farwell was elected for the unexpired term, caused by the resignation of Mr. Fessenden, to take charge of the Treasury Department.

The Vote on the Anti-Slavery Amendment Postponed.

New York, Jan. 13. The Post's Washington special says the vote on the anti-slavery Constitutional amendment will be postponed. It was taken now it would probably fail to secure the required majority, but the people in all parts of the country are moving in the matter.

—I S T H E—

ONLY UNION JOURNAL.

Published at the Capital of the State, enters upon its fifth volume with an established reputation as far as

Best Newspaper

Published west of Chicago. It is a sufficient proof of the universal and rapidly increasing popularity of the Press that in the short space of four years it has attained nearly

Treble the Circulation

Of any other Newspaper published in the State—a fact of GREAT IMPORTANCE TO ADVERTISERS. This marvellous success is owing not only to the fact that its political sentiments are in harmony with those of the majority of the people, but to its great superiority over all its rivals in every department of newspaper intelligence, being

Always ahead in News,

and foremost in the discussion of all subjects of public interest, and in advocacy of all measures for the material development of the State. It has for more extensive and intelligent Har and State Correspondents than any other Minnesota Journal, and better Local and Correspondents—and several excellent Local and Literary contributors. It is, in short,

The best General Newspaper

The best State Newspaper,

The best Local Newspaper,

The best Political Journal,

The best Statistical Journal,

The best Emigration Journal,

Great Improvements in Sewing Machines.

EMPIRE SHUTTLE MACHINE!

Patented February 14, 1860.

Salesroom 536 Broadway.

This machine is constructed on entirely new principles of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be SIMPLICITY and PERFECTION COMBINED.

It has a straight needle perpendicular action, makes the LOCK or SHUTTLE STITCH which will NEITHER RIP nor RAVEL, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nankeen Muslin, with Cotton, Linen, or Silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number.

Having neither CAM nor COG WHEEL, and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is Emphatically a Noiseless Machine!

It requires FIFTY PER CENT. less power to drive it than any other machine in market. A girl twelve years of age can work it steadily, without fatigue or injury to health. Its strength and WONDERFUL SIMPLICITY of construction render it almost impossible to get out of order, and it is GUARANTEED by the company to give entire satisfaction.

We respectfully invite all those who may desire to supply themselves with a superior article, to call and examine this UNRIVALLED MACHINE.

In a special number we select the patronage of

THE NEWS.

Another great victory has been gained by the National arms. Fort Fisher, one of the strongest fortifications on the rebel coast, has succumbed to the heroism and daring of our brave soldiers and sailors, led by skillful and intrepid officers. The trophies of this splendid achievement are two thousand prisoners, among them a Major-General, and seventy-four cannons. This seals the last rebel rat-hole, and puts an extinguisher on blockade running. Our loss is heavy, not yet officially stated, however, but estimated at about 900 in killed and wounded.

The Loyal Georgian.

A daily paper has been started at Savannah, Georgia, bearing the above title. The first number was issued on the 21st ult., immediately after the occupation of that city by the Union troops.

The following is an extract from the editor's salutatory:

Cordially we greet our readers under the banner which waves its stars and stripes over this fair heritage which was bequeathed to us by our ancestors. Yes, the glorious old flag, the Stars and the Stripes, was triumphantly seen this day as a protecting angel from the dark cloud of despair with which we had so long been covered.

The Loyal Georgian will be published as a news sheet, and will stand for the country and Government bequeathed to us by our fathers who gave us a firm and exact as to keep it. Independent in everything—supporting our country and good morals; open and free to all in honor, we find a happy greeting to you all.

A correspondent of a Western paper gives the following as the facts regarding the alleged movement to supercede General Thomas just before the battles at Nashville: "Grant telegraphed to Thomas that he was rather slow in moving, and ordered him to attack Hood. Thomas sent back a reply to Grant, saying that he was not slow in moving, and could not move until his plans were completed, and if Grant had any man that he had any more confidence in than himself, to send him at once and relieve him, and he would take a subordinate position. Grant replied that there was not a General in the army that he had more confidence in, and to go ahead and do what he thought was best. Grant said, probably the distant view he had taken was wrong, and thus the matter rested."

His Excellency Governor Andrew, says a Massachusetts paper, related at the dinner to the cadets the other evening, a "little story," which he credited to President Lincoln, and which we have not yet seen in print. The anecdote was first told on the night of the 8th of November, when, long after the success of the Union candidates was assured, the returns of heavy majorities still came in thick and jubilant. Then it was that the President was "reminded" of this little Illinois incident: A friend of his, passing along a village street, was painfully bitten by an ugly dog. A skilful blow of a heavy stick, skilfully aimed, was sufficient to kill the animal instantly; but the enraged pedestrian still continued to pummel the corpse, still vestige of the canine form remained. At length he was accosted with "What are you about? That dog has been dead these ten minutes." "I know it," was the reply, "but I want to give the beast a realizing sense that there is a punishment after death."

The New South contains an editorial from the Charleston Mercury of the 12th, which says: "The condition of this military department (Ga. and S. C.) is anything but satisfactory, and to none less so than to the General commanding. His department has been newly turned into his hands, and many of the troops are new to him, and to the department. They came to him under the command of imbeciles, and he has received them. What he shall not stop to inquire, this time has been short to do much, and the forces are very much scattered, but at the very last moment are arriving when all must be done that is to be done—where all must be done that can be done. The enemy does not intend to wait on our leisure, and there is much to do. The path we are now traveling is straight to destruction. The crisis of the Confederacy has arrived in earnest. The result of the next six months will bring the Confederacy to the ground, or will restate her in power. Without reform we are doomed. There must be no more Jeff. Davis' fooling, but brains and nerve."

The doctor of divinity did a fine thing the other day in ringing the changes on "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear." "He that is accessible to auricular vibration," said the doctor, "let him not close the gates of his typograph."

NEWS ITEMS.

At Woodbury Hollow, Vt., a man sued a cobbler to recover a pair of boots left to be repaired, which were withheld till an old debt of 75 cents was paid, and the jury returned a verdict: "We, the honorable jury do decide that the plaintiff and defendant pay each one half the costs, and the defendant return the boots, after taking off one of the taps."

Gen. Hood's artificial leg, made in London, performed a great pedestrian feat before he got it; it ran the blockade.

An old veteran who had been out in '61, hearing of the failure of Fort Fisher, burst out with: "By God, I wish it was as bad as Ben Butler's Blasted Blunder at the Bloody Battle of Big Bethel." A swarm of bees.

It is said that the clergy of Savannah omit from the usual formula the prayer for the President of the United States; and Gen. Sherman is reported to have said when one of these rebel Episcopal divines called upon him to ascertain if he would be allowed to pray for Jeff. Davis: "Pray for Jeff. Davis, why certainly! You ought to pray for him every day, for Jeff. Davis and the devil need praying for very much."

A little girl in Troy made a housewife and sent it to the army with her name on it. By and by a letter came from a sergeant into whose hands the housewife fell, saying that he was badly wounded and left on the field, but he stopped the flow of blood by using the housewife as a bandage, and so saved his life. We wish more of the girls would try to make useful housewives.

The Jews of this country have shown a full share of patriotism since the war began. From Ohio 12,000 have gone to fight for the Union flag; from New York 16,000; from Illinois 5,000; from Michigan and Wisconsin 4,000; and from other States enough to make a total of 40,000. They have also given of their wealth for the soldiers. They have established five asylums for disabled soldiers, their widows and orphans, the benefits of which are limited to no faith or creed—one at New York, one at Philadelphia, one at Cincinnati, one at Chicago, and one at St. Louis. They have a good record.

The Providence Journal tells the following story about a member of Congress from the Pacific coast.—Oregon sends a fresh blackwoodsman to Congress who had never seen a railroad till he came on this season. He had heard much of the trials of shavers, and was determined to keep his eye open. He kept them open so wide that when the conductor came and tore off the coupon of his car ticket, he seized the worthy officer by the throat, and nearly made an end of him before he could be persuaded that no wrong had been done. That man will make a sharp representative at Washington.

When General Davidson began his march from Baton Rouge to Pensacola, a Mississippi journal, the Paulding Clarion, said: "The people of Mississippi and Alabama must rise at once. But Mississippians and Alabamians couldn't be roused even by this Clarion-like appeal. They wouldn't rise. They must be incoercibly lazy not to get up to be killed."

"Doesticks" is announced to deliver his lecture on "Pluck" in Savannah, by permission of Gen. Geary. It is not generally known that "Doesticks" is a son-in-law of Gen. Van Cleve, of this State.

A Louisville dispatch of the 17th says Gen. T. F. Meagher had arrived with several thousand veteran troops on his way to join Sherman at Savannah.

How are the Mighty Fallen.

Six years ago, one of the leading men in the United States Senate, was James Green, of Missouri. Every observer of passing events in the political history of the country, will remember his signal triumph in a bad cause, during the debate on the Reconstruction question. He was the only man who, by common consent, got the upper hand of Douglas in that memorable discussion, and but for him the Southmen would have made a poor show just then. There seemed to be a bright future opening for him, but like many others similarly situated, he thought no man could rise in the world of politics without passing a good deal of his time in the bar-rooms of Washington. To-day, as I was walking down Pennsylvania Avenue, I passed a wretched looking man, stupidly drunk, his face horribly disfigured, as if he had just emerged from a street fight, both his eyes blackened and swollen, his clothing covered with mud and fire—the cynosure of all eyes, and the laughing-stock of shoe-blacks. I asked him who it was, and was told it was "Jim Green, of Missouri." Alas, how the mighty have fallen!—Washington Correspondence Cincinnati Commercial.

The St. Louis Republican asks if Shakspeare's familiar personage, "There is a divinity that shapes our ends," does not allude to the young lady who makes boots with a sewing machine. Certainly not; the inquirer should know that in Shakspeare's time the ladies wore large bustles, called "divinities."—Leavenworth Conservative.

From Wilmington—Official Report of Admiral Porter.

North Atlantic Squadron, U. S. Flagship Malvern, Of Fort Fisher, Jan. 16, 1865.

To Hon. Gideon Welles: Sir.—I wrote you yesterday. We have all the Forts. The army have captured 1,800 men, and a large number of officers, including Gen. Whiting and Col. Lamb. The garrisons are now in the river, and Wilmington is sealed against blockade runners.

The rebels have destroyed the works on Smith's Island, and if they do not destroy Fort Caswell it is of no use to them.

You must not expect too much at one time. These works are tremendous. I was in Fort Malakoff a few days after its surrender to the French and English. The combined armies of these two nations were many months capturing that stronghold, and it won't compare either in size or strength to Fort Fisher.

The fort contained seventy-five guns, and many of them were heavy ones. I have not yet named what our casualties are in killed and wounded, but I think 300 will cover them all. We had a bad explosion in the fort this morning, which killed and wounded a number of men—about 100.

Some of our seamen were blown up, and Acting Assistant Paymaster R. H. Gillett, of the Gettysburg, was killed. I will send a detailed report as soon as I can get of the wounded and arrange matters generally. The world never saw such fighting as our soldiers did.

Your obedient servant, DAVID D. PORTER, Rear Admiral.

Rebel Account of the Fall of Fort Fisher.

[OFFICIAL BULLETIN.]

Washington, Jan. 17.—(P. M.)

To Major-General Dix:

The Richmond Whig of this morning contains the following account of the capture of Fort Fisher by the naval and land forces of the United States: "FALL OF FORT FISHER.—The unexpected news of the fall of Fort Fisher, commanding the entrance to Cape Fear River, was received this morning, and occasioned a sensation of profound regret. The capture of this Fort is equal to the closing of the harbor of Wilmington by the enemy's fleet. It is situated about eighteen miles below the city, but was the main defense of the entrance to the river. Its fall will prevent the future arrival and departure of all blockade runners. How far this reverse may prove injurious to our cause remains to be seen; but at present we regard it as rather an unfortunate than disastrous event."

The following is the official report:

THE QUARTERS, Jan. 16.

To Hon. J. A. Sedgwick: Gen. Bager reports that the enemy bombarded Fort Fisher furiously all day yesterday. At 4 P. M. their infantry advanced to the assault, a heavy demonstration at the same time being made against their rear by our troops. At half past 6 Gen. Whiting reports that their attack had failed, and the garrison was being strengthened with fresh troops. At 10 P. M. the Fort was captured with most of the garrison. No further particulars at this time are known.

Fort Fisher—Further Particulars of the Capture.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 18.

The following is taken from the correspondence of the Baltimore American, dated off Fort Fisher, Jan. 16: "The fight lasted six hours, being a desperate hand to hand struggle. Each of the seventeen rounds and embarras were taken in succession after the most fierce encounters in which hordes of dead and wounded were added to those that already lined the fort. Suffice it to say by way of preface to a detailed account that, notwithstanding the fort had been strengthened and reinforced to treble the garrison it had when Butler decided that it could not be taken, it is now in our possession, with 74 cannon, 2,000 living prisoners and 700 dead, and that our gunboats have to-day sailed up the Cape Fear river, driving before them the pirates Chinkapaunga and Tallahassee, effectually closing it to blockade running, and stopping the importation of munitions of war."

Indian Outbreak.

VALLEY STATION, Col. Jan. 16.

Two hundred Indians burned four ranches and one mail station, west of here on Saturday, stealing quite a large number of horses and cattle, and destroying a large amount of property. They also tore down the telegraph line and carried off the wire. There was some fighting.

Protecting the Border.

DELAWARE, Me. Jan. 17.

Two companies of State Guards arrived here yesterday, and to-day proceeded to the batteries. In view of our recent Canadian difficulties, it is understood that the coast and frontier of Maine are to be prepared for emergencies, and companies have been sent to Castine and Machias.

A prominent bachelor politician in the Kennebec, remarked to a lady that soup-stone was excellent to keep the feet warm in bed. "Yes," said the young lady, who had been an attentive listener, "but some gentlemen have an improvement on that, which you know nothing about." The bachelor turned pale, and maintained a wistful silence.

Death of Hon. Edward Everett.

Edward Everett died at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 15th, at his residence in Boston, of apoplexy. He was nearly 71 years of age.

Another Minnesota Celebrity—General Ames the Hero of Fort Fisher, a resident of Northfield Rice County.

NORTHFIELD, Rice Co. Minn., Editors St. Paul Press:

GENTLEMEN:—That gallant young officer, General Adelbert Ames, who led the assault on and captured Fort Fisher, resides in Northfield, Rice County, Minn. He came here to reside when furloughed last October. He was born in Maine, and is a son of Captain Jesse Ames, now residing in Northfield, Minnesota, and proprietor of the Northfield Flouring Mills.

The Captain, as well as the General, are sterling Republicans, and no truer or better young officer wears the United States uniform than General Ames, who was twice ready to take Fort Fisher—once under Butler, and again when he was permitted to do it.

Yours truly, L. B.

Schofield's Corps en route to Sherman.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22.

The Democrat learns that the 23d Corps (Gen. Schofield's) will soon join Gen. Sherman via Tennessee and Ohio river and rail to tide water, thence by sea.

Our readers will remember that our Minnesota Eighth is attached to Schofield's corps.

Advertising.

The increased attention to and unusual facilities for advertising have materially changed the aspect of business. The days of sitting quietly in well filled stores waiting for trade, have gone by—the old landmarks for business are removed, and new channels opened up, who clings to the custom of bygone ages may as well shut his doors, and the dust shall accumulate upon his profitless ware. Now-a-days, if a man wishes to increase his business, or in fact do business at all, he advertises. Shrewd men, of small capital, long ago discovered the sure road to wealth—and those who have been doing nearly all the business in certain departments after rules followed by their fathers, now see themselves suddenly distanced by new competitors taking the business into their hands through the influence and tremendous power of the press of the country.

James H. Lane has been re-elected United States Senator from Kansas for six years.

John McClain, 8th Minnesota, died in St. Louis last week.

Three drunken rebel lieutenants were recently taken in Richmond, for passing the streets, arm in arm, with some negro women.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE SOLDIERS' FAMILIES.—An article which appeared in our last paper, calling the attention of our people to the fact that the wives and children of some of our soldiers who are doing battle at the front, were in straitened circumstances, and in some instances, really in pressing need of many of the necessaries of life which they were unable to procure, has had the effect to arouse our citizens to prompt and energetic action
in the matter.

In response to the suggestion in our last issue, the ladies met at the Council Rooms on last Friday afternoon to take into consideration the most feasible
plan for raising funds for this laudable object.

Many plans were discussed; but it was finally decided to have an oyster supper on Thursday evening of this week at the Armory Hall. There are to be many other entertaining features connected with the affair, such as a fishing pond, ring cakes, guess cakes, raf-les, &c., &c. We do not doubt a large sum will be raised for this noble purpose.

A Singer Sewing Machine will be raf-
fled for in the Hall during the evening.
Tickets for sale at the stores of D. Bronson, Ariel Eldridge, J. Schupp, and Levy & Daniels.

This, however, is only the first of a series of entertainments, all having the same worthy object in view.

On Thursday evening of next week,
February 9th, an exhibition will be given, consisting of Charades, Tableaux, &c. The pieces and designs are all new,
and a great number of rich costumes are to be procured for the occasion. It promises to be a very attractive affair.

On Friday or Saturday evening following a grand Musical Concert will be given by the singers of this city, under the direction of Mr. Leimkuhler. Hon.
Chas. Schaeffer, with several other members of the St. Paul Musical Association, have kindly consented to be present and favor the audience with overtures at the opening and closing of the concert.

It is expected to hold the concert at the Sawyer House Hall, but it is not, as yet, definitely known. Time and place, with other particulars, will be announced
in our next.

TAKEN PRISONER.—A painful rumor
has reached us that ROBERT GATCHELL,
of this city, a member of company K, Fifth Minnesota, was captured by the enemy, a short time since, while encamped near Eastport, in the northeast corner of the State of Mississippi, on the Tennessee river. We learn that a member of that company wrote to his wife in this city that Mr. GATCHELL went out with a foraging party, and had not returned, and the supposition was that he had been captured. As a partial confirmation we notice in the St.
Paul Press a statement from a correspondent at Eastport, that a number of teamsters with their teams had been taken by the rebels. We trust the rumor may yet prove unfounded. His family are overwhelmed with grief at the sad news. They have the sympathies of many friends.

BALL ON FRIDAY EVENING.—There will be a dance at the Sawyer House on Friday evening of this week, Feb. 3d.
A number of the members of the Legislature are expected to be present.

No tickets will be issued, but a general invitation is extended to all. The bill has been fixed at a very low rate,
$2.50, including supper.

Seibert's band of St. Paul will discuss the music.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—We think we have seldom seen a more touchingly beautiful engraving than that which em-bellishes the February number of this magazine. It is called "The Prisoner's Child," and is a story in itself. The Double Steel Fashion Plate for this month is a very handsome one, both in design and execution; the contrast between the colors is especially fine. The other fashions and engravings of fancy-work are as usual varied and well executed. The music for this month is the "Linden Hall Polka." The Literary
contents are varied and excellent.

Price $2.50; 2 copies $4.00; 9 copies $16.00; 21 copies $35.00. Specimen numbers will be sent to those desirous of making up clubs for 15 cts. Wheeler and Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines are furnished as Premiums. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

Now is the time to send on subscriptions for 1895.

We will furnish the Lady's Friend
and Messenger for $4.00.

PROMOTION.—We notice, with pleasure, that our old friend, Ed. O'Brien has been promoted to a First Lieuten-ancy, vice ROY. HARTY, resigned. He is well deserving of the bar.

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.—We call the particular attention of our readers to the prospects of this paper in another column. As a sterling, reliable, Union paper, it has no superior in the country.
It has been, from the beginning of the present rebellion, the most unflinching and earnest exponent of the Administration and its policies, and its editorial
are of the most sparkling and pungent kind. The paper is very large, and contains more reading matter than any paper in the Northwest. We commend it to our readers as the best news-paper in the Northwest. For terms see presents.

"THE MOST LAUGHABLE THING ON EARTH."—Perhaps our readers have not noticed an advertisement in another column with the above attractive heading.
SCHUPP has supplied himself with a quantity of the games, which he is selling at 25 cents. If, as is said, a hearty laugh is a luxury, you can purchase what will produce a great many luxuries for the small sum of twenty-five cents.

GODBY'S LADY'S BOOK for February
is at hand, containing the fashion plates,
valuable instructions for embroidery,
&c., very useful to ladies. This number also contains a large amount of excellent and entertaining reading matter.
Price $3 per year. Address L. A.
GODBY, Philadelphia.

BIO BOOKS.—Owatonna has voted to pay a bounty of five hundred dollars to any person who will enlist in the United States army for one year and be credited to that town.

Mrs. GORE.—This somewhat celebrated lady, who was here a few weeks since,
and is supposed by many to have delivered a lecture in this place, is announced to speak at Monmouth, on the subject of "The Religion of Nature and Personal Development."

SOLD OUT.—MARTIN JOHNSON, who has kept the Jewelry Store and News
Depot for many years on Main street,
has sold out his establishment to ARIAL ELDRIDGE, Esq., who will hold forth in future at the same old stand, as proprietor of the News Emporium.

TO KEEP EGGS.—Take bags made of thick cotton, large enough to slip an egg
in, and long enough to hold one dozen;
fill the bags, and tie the ends with string,
curds, and hang them up in the cellar;
turn them end for end once or twice a week, so that they will not settle on the bottom, and your eggs will keep fresh all winter.—Edwards.

Will some of our readers who are fortunate enough to have a dozen eggs, try the above and report. Eggs never spoil at our house. We have also our little "olive branches" have free access to the cellar where apples are stored, and are not liable to decay. Our readers may act upon this suggestion, if they choose. We charge nothing for the recipe.

—A Second National Bank of St.
Paul, with a capital of $150,000, to be increased to $500,000, has been authorized. We notice that ISAAC STAPLES, of this city is one of the Directors.

THE EIGHTH REGIMENT.—It is authentically announced that this regiment has been ordered to join Sherman, via New York.
It was known more than a week since that the regiment was ordered to some point on the coast, but whether with a view to join Sherman or Grant was not definitely known.

—The "Old Settlers" meeting at Hudson on the 18th, proved a failure,
as far as the old settlers were concerned.
But the "new settlers" took advantage of the occasion, and had a large time.

It is a Fact:
Levy & Daniels are now selling to close business—they are selling all kinds of goods at very low prices. All in want of anything in the way of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Crockery or Glass Ware, should give them a call and find out their prices.

MACKENZIE'S
Patent Auto-Propelling
CANTERING HORSES.

A Patent Horse to carry his master,
Needs no spur to make him go faster;
Runs along cheerily soon as you stride him,
Ready to go wherever you guide him.

These horses run rapidly over any good road
sidewalk or park grounds, with a graceful cantering motion, propelled entirely by the weight of the rider, alternating from the saddle to the pedals, in the act of rising to the motion of the horse, and with about the same amount of exercise to the rider as in riding a live horse.
They may be started, stopped, and controlled in going down hill, by the rider. They will run up a moderate ascent, if the road is hard and firm. They are directed by the bells, as the motions are identical. It is a good mode of training for equestrianism. They are unequaled as a means for agreeable and healthful outdoor exercise, all the year round, for adults, as well as for girls and boys of two years old and upward. Girls ride by using the side-saddle horn—those under ten years old usually ride astride. The size for boys is strong enough to carry a man of 300 pounds weight. On the sidewalk or level ground, a light carriage with a child in it can be attached and drawn. Any person having but one leg can ride perfectly well.

For prices, inquire at the office of this paper, or send stamp for circular and price list.

the Blues.

A HEARTY LAUGH is a luxury, and often is a first-rate medicine. We indulged in such a laugh the other evening, while the young folks were amusing themselves with an innocent and very comical game, advertised under the fanciful head, "The Most Laughable Thing on Earth." It is not a humbug.—American Agri-

STOVES
AND Tin-Ware!

The subscriber would beg to be understood as conveying the idea, in the most delicate manner possible, "to all whom it may concern"
and the "rest of mankind," that he keeps a Store on the corner of Chestnut and Second streets, in this "young but thriving city." He would also beg leave to remark, in continuation, that he keeps something else besides a store; for instance—

TIN THINGS,
and things made of COPPER and
"SOUNDING BRASS."
He has also on hand, at this particular juncture, ever so many

STOVES,
admirably adapted for COOKING. And some other much better adapted for warming or HEATING purposes; such as heating a palar, or a dining-room or a bed-room, etc.
Succinctly—These things are for sale, every one of them; and worse than that, they will be offered for a few weeks at such remarkably

LOW PRICES
as will startle the beholder, and strike the listless dumb with astonishment.

All in want of any thing in this line, are hereby requested, instructed and advised, to
